

PSALM 89

I will sing of the LORD's great love forever;
with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations.

<sup>2</sup>I will declare that your love stands firm forever,
that you have established your faithfulness in heaven itself.

The heavens praise your wonders, LORD, your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones.

<sup>6</sup>For who in the skies above can compare with the LORD?
Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings?

<sup>7</sup>In the council of the holy ones God is greatly feared;
he is more awesome than all who surround him.

<sup>8</sup>Who is like you, LORD God Almighty?
You, LORD, are mighty, and your faithfulness surrounds you.

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
love and faithfulness go before you.

<sup>15</sup>Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence, LORD.

A PILGRIM

Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence, Lord. Psalm 89:15

“Thank you, Father, for the assurance that I am involved in something more important than myself, something bigger than my problems, and something higher than my pursuit of pleasure. Sometimes, though, when I can't see what it is, I am tempted to attribute to Satan the work you are doing. Protect me from this dangerous way of thinking. May I never conclude that a particular “thing” could not possibly be from you simply because I don't understand it or because it is unpleasant. May I learn to proclaim you for your faithfulness, not blame you for my doubt. I do indeed want to walk worthy, Lord, and to do so I know that I need to spend less time as a tourist sauntering along Easy Street and more as a pilgrim heading for High Street. Please order my steps in your Word, dear, Lord, and enable me to do your will. “

Jesus, sweetly calls us to himself, in that while we were yet sinners Christ died to make us his own family.
