

PSALM 57:1-3, 9-11

- ¹ Have mercy on me, my God, have mercy on me,
for in you I take refuge.
I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings
until the disaster has passed.
- ² I cry out to God Most High,
to God, who vindicates me.
- ³ He sends from heaven and saves me,
rebuking those who hotly pursue me—
God sends forth his love and his faithfulness.
- ⁹ I will praise you, Lord, among the nations;
I will sing of you among the peoples.
- ¹⁰ For great is your love, reaching to the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
- ¹¹ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.

TURNING OUR HEARTS TOWARD YOU

Have mercy on me, my God, have mercy on me, for in you I take refuge.

I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings until the disaster has passed. Psalm 57:1

“Thank you, Lord, that your plan for all of creation is to make your glory cover all of the earth. Thank you for choosing us to be your partners in this marvelous undertaking by allowing us to wear the glorious garments of your righteousness. Thank you for new beginnings that depend not on clocks and calendars but on the cross. Thank you for recent reminders of the hope that change can bring. But turning the page of history is of little significance compared to the daily act of turning our hearts toward you. I confess that I often spend more time pouting about my circumstances than shouting about your power to use them for good. As I turn my heart toward you today, change the hurt of crushing circumstances into the wine of godly blessing that will bring joy and healing to others. Change my failure and brokenness into bread that will feed the spiritually hungry so they too will know that nothing compares to the promise we have in you.”
