

Ephesians 5:6-21

Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. Therefore, do not be partakers with them; for you were formerly darkness, but now you are Light in the Lord; walk as children of Light (for the fruit of the Light consists in all goodness and righteousness and truth), trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them; for it is disgraceful even to speak of the things which are done by them in secret..... Therefore, be careful how you walk, not as unwise men but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil. So then do not be foolish but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; always giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father; and be subject to one another in the fear of Christ.

Always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ephesians 5:20

“Father, my day was interrupted...who am I kidding? Even this prayer has been interrupted. My plan was to accomplish such much for you today. What happened? Harsh words as I left the house, traffic, forgetfulness, technology, burdens, health, incompetence. All these were for my good? If only I could see the other side of what You are doing through these things. Was it to preserve or protect me in some way? Was it to conform my character to be more like you? I want to set aside my plan to do and accept Your plan to be. Use your Spirit to prompt me to be still and know You are at work. Use your Spirit to mold my responses. Let me redeem the time I have. Let my story tell of You.”
