

Psalm 62

My soul waits in silence for God only;
From Him is my salvation.

²He only is my rock and my salvation,
My stronghold; I shall not be greatly shaken.

³How long will you assail a man, that you may murder him, all of you,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

⁴They have counseled only to thrust him down from his high position;
They delight in falsehood;

They bless with their mouth, but inwardly they curse. Selah.

⁵My soul, wait in silence for God only, for my hope is from Him.

⁶He only is my rock and my salvation, my stronghold; I shall not be shaken.

⁷On God my salvation and my glory rest; The rock of my strength, my refuge is in God.

⁸Trust in Him at all times, O people; Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us.

HERE TO WORSHIP

Yes, my soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him, truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will not be shaken. Psalm 62:5-6

"I go to church to worship you, Lord, but I'm not very good at it. The reason is not because our style of worship is too formal or too informal; it's not because we have the wrong mix of hymns and praise songs; it's not because I can't hear the accompaniment or see the song leader. The reason I fail to worship is because I don't hear and see you! I don't hear you because I don't take time to stop and listen, and I don't see you because my heart is impure. I spend too much energy trying to get everything around me changed to reflect my idea of perfection and not enough time resting in your ability to make all things perfect. Instead of trying to accomplish in others what only you can do, may I cooperate with you in what you are doing in me. Then I will be able to see you in all your glory and sing of your wonderful love."
