

Psalm 89

⁵The heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

⁶For who in the skies is comparable to the LORD?

¹¹The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all it contains, You have founded them.

¹²The north and the south, You have created them;
Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.

¹⁴Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
Lovingkindness and truth go before You.

¹⁵How blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
O LORD, they walk in the light of Your countenance.

¹⁷For You are the glory of their strength,
And by Your favor our horn is exalted.

¹⁸For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

EXHALT JESUS'S NAME

The heavens praise your wonders, Lord, your faithfulness too. Psalm 89:5

“Thank you, heavenly Father, that you chose to ride a plodding donkey rather than a speeding steed. * Thank you that even a simple gift becomes great when it is given in your name. Thank you that even the nameless are remembered when they glorify your name. Too often, though, I am like those who welcomed you with shouts of praise when they thought you were going to save them from the tyranny of Rome but soon were cursing you because you upset their religious leaders rather than their political oppressors.  Like them, I too would rather be ruled by one who imposes laws than by One who exposes sin. Change my thinking, Lord. May I stop trying to suppress my sin with human effort and accept with childlike faith the divine effort of your Son, who chose not to suppress sin but to conquer it. He did so not by raising himself to be our king but by lowering himself to be our sacrifice. No wonder His name is exalted. No wonder He deserves all praise!”
