

Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who live in this world,
<sup>2</sup>both low and high,
rich and poor alike:
<sup>3</sup>My mouth will speak words of wisdom;
the meditation of my heart will give you understanding.
<sup>4</sup>I will turn my ear to a proverb;
with the harp I will expound my riddle:
<sup>5</sup>Why should I fear when evil days come,
when wicked deceivers surround me—
<sup>6</sup>those who trust in their wealth
and boast of their great riches?
<sup>7</sup>No one can redeem the life of another
or give to God a ransom for them—<sup>8</sup>the ransom for a life is costly,
no payment is ever enough—
<sup>15</sup>But God will redeem me from the realm of the dead;
he will surely take me to himself.

I Have Everything I Need

Why should I fear when evil days come, when wicked deceivers surround me—those who trust in their wealth and boast of their great riches? Psalm 49:5&6

“Forgive me, Lord, for thinking that to do your will I need anything more than what you have given; my own hands to extend the love and kindness you want to give, my own feet to take me where you want to go, and my own story of redemption to explain your will for the world. Forgive me for waiting for better circumstances, more talent, more time, or a bigger budget. Forgive me for trying to manipulate circumstances to accomplish my will rather than yours. I am grateful that you are redeeming me from the foolish ways of the world, and I want my life to be evidence of your transforming power. May I live every day in the awareness that I have everything I need to accomplish whatever you want me to do. Lord, help me take advantage of every situation I’m in to life up the name of Jesus. “
