

PSALM 78

My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth with a parable;
I will utter hidden things, things from of old—
things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
We will not hide them from their descendants;
we will tell the next generation
the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD,
his power, and the wonders he has done.
He decreed statutes for Jacob
and established the law in Israel,
which he commanded our ancestors
to teach their children,
so the next generation would know them,
even the children yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their children.
Then they would put their trust in God
and would not forget his deeds
but would keep his commands.

ONLY YOU

We will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord, his power, and the wonders he has done.
Psalm 78:4

Some people say that more knowledge will save civilization from extinction; some say that stricter law enforcement will protect citizens from evil; others say that more human kindness will put an end to all suffering. But better education can't change desires, stronger laws can't improve behavior, and more compassion can't eliminate hatred. And all of that is true of me as well, Lord. More knowledge about you won't save me, more self-discipline won't get me into your kingdom, and more acts of compassion won't turn my heart or anyone else's toward you. Only you can do any of those things. We worship you because that is indeed what you want to do for us, in us and through us. Make our knowledge holy and our motives pure. May we be wholly devoted to you.

Taken from 100 Prayers Inspired by the Psalms by Jay Link © 2017 Discovery House. Used by permission. All rights reserved

Ancient Words:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3vmTkXNpwz4>

The Wonder of the Cross:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UCstpSI5Ys4>

Your Grace Finds Me:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Mqd8MoiCbcl>

