

Psalms 136

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD!

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy!

<sup>3</sup> If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,

O Lord, who could stand?

<sup>4</sup> But with you there is forgiveness,

that you may be feared.

<sup>5</sup> I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,

and in his word I hope;

<sup>6</sup> my soul waits for the Lord

more than watchmen for the morning,

more than watchmen for the morning.

<sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD!

For with the LORD there is steadfast love,

and with him is plentiful redemption.

<sup>8</sup> And he will redeem Israel

from all his iniquities.

REIGN IN MY LIFE

If you, Lord, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve you.

The clutter in my house proves that I have trouble letting go of things, Lord, and I know that is not good. But what about all the good things you have put into my life? Is it wrong for me to want to hold onto them? Perhaps in trying to make you seem more real, I've allowed your gifts to become more important to me than you are. Maybe what I do for you has become more important to me than what you want to do for me. I want to feel your presence, Lord, but maybe I've been trying too hard to create it with the work I do. I want to experience your love, but maybe I've been trying too hard to earn it from others. I'm sorry, but I'm also sad. I believe that you reign in heaven, but I long for the day when you also will reign in my life and on all the earth.
