

Psalm 108:1-5

Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

<sup>2</sup> Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wondrous works!

<sup>3</sup> Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

seek his presence continually!

<sup>5</sup> Remember the wondrous works that he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,

MORE ABOUT YOU, LORD

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth. Psalm 105:5

I know, Lord, that more important than the words we sing at church is the life we lead during the week. More important than the emotion I feel while worshipping in song with my brothers and sisters in Christ is the motive that drives me after I leave the building. The music I make with the air I breathe is only a symbol of the music made with my soul. Thank you, Father, for the miracle of music, which takes something as simple as air and, through obedience to the laws of nature, transforms it into melodies and harmonies that lift up my spirit. How great you are for creating something so complex and yet making it so simple for us to enjoy. Thank you, Father, for the miracle of your love, which takes something as simple as my everyday experiences and, through obedience to your Word, transforms them into a life of praise that exalts your name above the heavens and spreads your glory over all the earth.
