

Psalms 24:1-2 & 7-10

The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof,
the world and those who dwell therein,
²for he has founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

Lift up your heads, O gates!
And be lifted up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

⁸Who is this King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle!

⁹Lift up your heads, O gates!
And lift them up, O ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.

¹⁰Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory!

CHANGE MY DESIRE

Who is he, this King of glory? The Lord Almighty—he is the King of Glory. Psalm 24:10

Lord Almighty, King of glory, I am ashamed to admit how often I call on your name to ask you to make life easier for me in the natural world rather than to make me stronger in the spiritual world. Keep me from thinking that your name, O God, is a magic word I can use to invoke divine power for my own comfort and convenience. Teach me instead that it is a holy word meant to unleash the power of truth and love against the forces of evil. How is it, Lord, that demons know your name is “Holy One,” but I still call you health, wealth, and success? How is it that evil spirits obey you, but I still try to get you to obey me? Change my desire for earthly power and control into a longing for spiritual victory over selfishness and pride. I lift my face to you today so your glory may come into my life. May the glory of your presence be recognized in me just as it was in Jesus when He walked this earth many years ago.
